

RESOLUTION N° 1

Proposed by Slovakia

The Status of the Artist Today

The IAA AIAP General Assembly recommends NCs to join the discussion about the status of the artist today, supports national solution about frame proposal defining it, and use it in negotiation with the responsible representative of states, with the aim to improve social and legal rights of the artist.

The IAA AIAP General Assembly recommends Member States Governments to take into consideration the positive experiences obtained by preparing a law concerning the “Status of the Artist”, and implement the best ideas in the process of improvement social guarantees, creative working conditions, work and taxation conditions of artists, thereby taking into consideration the artists’ creative contribution to each nation’s cultural development.