

Invitation Letter

Honorable Sir/Madam_____

We warmly welcomed you to Beijing as the participated artists for the 6th Beijing International Art Biennale.

Beijing International Art Biennale initiated in 2003, up to now it have held successively for 5 times. The participating countries have reached from 45 to more than 80, the participating artists have totaled more than 3000 and the visitors have reached 1 million during the past 10 years. Chinese visitor know the different cultural feature of the other countries and also want to know the view of foreign artists to the colorful Chinese culture, different custom and the beautiful sightseeing.

So, we plan to have a exhibition named “China in the eyes of world artists”. We will invite artists from different countries to express their thinking and feeling of China by create artworks. And we also invite Chinese artists to create artworks related with the other counties. All the artworks both by Chinese artists and foreign artists will be exhibited in the same place. Through the conception of promoting the global harmony and respecting the variety of the international culture, this exhibition will promote the further cultural exchanges across the world.

China is famous for its historical and cultural heritage and Historical relics and pleasant natural scenery can be found in everywhere. All of these will let you experience its graceful ancient flavor and splendid humanistic features and at the same time appreciate its unique and abundant cultural content, which will give you inspiration for artwork creation and help to promote profound exchange and communication between China and foreign countries in art creation.
